Student Aid Report: This is a summary of information you reported on your FAFSA and will include your family's Expected Family Contribution (EFC). Verification: Colleges may require additional documents to confirm the information you reported on your financial aid forms. Institutional Financial Aid Forms: Some colleges will require you to fill out their own financial aid forms. These forms will either be sent to you or found online and they are to be sent directly back to the colleges. If you are unsure whether your college(s) requires additional forms, you may visit the school's website or contact the financial aid office. You should also check with each college to make sure that your financial aid file is complete.

Financial Aid Award Letter: Once you have been accepted to a college, and completed all the steps above, the college will then send you a financial aid award letter. The award letter will inform you of the amount of financial aid you will receive if you choose to attend that college. You should review and compare all award letters before sending a tuition deposit!

Please keep in mind that the financial aid process continues into the summer with other steps that you must complete!
